Amos 9:11-15

¹¹[Thus says the Lord God:] "In that day I will raise up the booth of David that is fallen and repair its breaches, and raise up its ruins and rebuild it as in the days of old, ¹²that they may possess the remnant of Edom and all the nations who are called by my name," declares the LORD who does this. ¹³"Behold, the days are coming," declares the LORD, "when the plowman shall overtake the reaper and the treader of grapes him who sows the seed; the mountains shall drip sweet wine, and all the hills shall flow with it. ¹⁴I will restore the fortunes of my people Israel, and they shall rebuild the ruined cities and inhabit them; they shall plant vineyards and drink their wine, and they shall make gardens and eat their fruit. ¹⁵I will plant them on their land, and they shall never again be uprooted out of the land that I have given them," says the LORD your God.

Romans 12:6-16a

⁶[Brethren:] Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, in proportion to our faith; ⁷if service, in our serving; the one who teaches, in his teaching; ⁸the one who exhorts, in his exhortation; the one who contributes, in generosity; the one who leads, with zeal; the one who does acts of mercy, with cheerfulness.

⁹Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good. ¹⁰Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor. ¹¹Do not be slothful in zeal, be fervent in spirit, serve the Lord. ¹²Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer. ¹³Contribute to the needs of the saints and seek to show hospitality.

¹⁴Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. ¹⁵Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. ¹⁶Live in harmony with one another. Do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly.

John 2:1-11

¹[At that time:] There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. ²Jesus also was invited to the wedding with his disciples. ³When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." ⁴And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does this have to do with me? My hour has not yet come." ⁵His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." ⁶Now there were six stone water jars there for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. ⁷Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. ⁸And he said to them, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the feast." So they took it. ⁹When the master of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom ¹⁰and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and when people have drunk freely, then the poor wine. But you have kept the good wine until now." ¹¹This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory. And his disciples believed in him.

THE LORD'S SUPPER is being celebrated today. Trinity Lutheran upholds the Scriptural practice of Closed Communion. God's Word teaches the real presence of Christ's body and blood for the forgiveness of sins. It also teaches that those who eat and drink our Lord's body and blood unworthily do so to their great harm (see 1 Cor. 11:27-29) and that Holy Communion is a confession of what is taught and believed at this altar (1 Cor. 11:26). Therefore, for your own spiritual welfare, if you are not yet instructed, in doubt, or if you hold a confession differing from that of this congregation (that is, belong to another church body or denomination), and yet desire to receive the Sacrament, you are asked to first speak with the pastor.

SERMON ON JOHN 2:1-11

Water into Wine

“THINGS JESUS CAN DO THAT YOU CAN’T”

Sermon Outline

1. Why you should “do whatever He tells you.”
2. Two Natures of Jesus (Divine and Human / True God and True Man)
 - a. Jesus is perfect and gives the perfect ransom for our sin.
 - b. Jesus raises from the dead.
 - c. Jesus is always with you.
 - d. Jesus hears your prayers and brings them to Father.
 - e. Jesus rules over all of Creation and over the Church.
 - f. Jesus forgives sins in Word and Sacrament.
 - g. Jesus will create a new heavens and new earth with the best wine of all for last.

DOCTRINE FOR THE DAY – THE TWO NATURES OF JESUS

[23] On account of this personal union and communion of the divine and the human nature in Christ we believe, teach, and confess what is said about the majesty of Christ according to His humanity, according to our simple Christian faith: He sits at the right hand of the almighty power of God. We also || confess what <follows from that>. All of this would mean nothing and could not stand if this personal union and communion of the natures in the person of Christ did not exist (in deed and truth).

[24] On account of this personal union and communion of the natures, Mary, the most blessed Virgin, did not bear a mere man. But, as the angel <Gabriel> testifies, she bore a man who is truly the Son of the most high God [Luke 1:35]. He showed His divine majesty even in His mother's womb, because He was born of a virgin, without violating her virginity. Therefore, she is truly the mother of God and yet has remained a virgin.

[25] He did all His miracles by the power of this personal union. He showed His divine majesty, according to His pleasure, when and as He willed. He did this not just after His resurrection and ascension, but also in His state of humiliation. For example:

- (a) At the wedding at Cana of Galilee [John 2:1–11]
- (b) When He was twelve years old, among the learned [Luke 2:42–50]
- (c) In the garden, when with a word He cast His enemies to the ground [John 18:6]
- (d) In death, when He died not simply as any other man, but in and with His death conquered sin, death, devil, hell, and eternal damnation [Colossians 2:13–15]

The human nature alone would not have been able to do these miracles if it had not been personally united and had communion with the divine nature.

[26] The human nature, after the resurrection from the dead, is exalted above all creatures in heaven and on earth. This is nothing other than that He entirely laid aside the form of a servant [Philippians 2:7–11]. He did not lay aside His human nature, but retains it to eternity. He has the full possession and use of the divine majesty according to His received human nature. However, He had this majesty immediately at His conception, even in His mother's womb. As the apostle testifies [Philippians 2:7], He laid it aside. As Dr. Luther explains, He kept it concealed in the state of His humiliation and did not always use it, but only when He wanted to use it [LW 15:291].

LAST SUNDAY

The Sunday of Jesus 12 Years Old in Temple

God asks us to "present our bodies" and be "renewed in our minds" in Romans 12. Like a well-trained athlete, we give our bodies and minds to the service of our "team" – the God and to His Church. Christ gave His entire body and mind as the sacrifice for us on the cross!

NEXT SUNDAY - January 21, 2024

The Sunday of Jesus's Transfiguration

Ex. 34:29-35; 2 Peter 1:16-21; Matt. 17:1-9

Hymns: 414, 413, 816, 633, 415

Not only is next Sunday a celebration of the Transfiguration of Jesus, but it's also Life Sunday where we are reminded of the holiness of every single human life from conception and all the way to the end of life here on earth.
